5. Guide To The Promotion Of Access To Information Act 2 Of 2000 (Section 51(1)(b) read with section 10)

- 5.1. In terms of the Act, a Requester may be granted access to records held by a private body. This access is subject to the records being required for the exercise or protection of any right. Should a public body lodge a complaint, in order to receive access, the public body must be acting in the public interest.

- 5.2. In terms of section 10 of the Act, the South African Human Rights Commission (SAHRC) compiled an Information Guide ("Guide"), containing information for the purposes of exercising your Constitutional rights. The Guide is set out in an easy to understand form to assist Requesters with exercising any right contemplated in the Act. Requesters are referred to this guide which is available on the SAHRC's website at: <http://www.sahrc.org.za>. It describes, in each official language:
- 5.2.1. What the objectives of the Act are.
 - 5.2.2. The details of the private body.
 - 5.2.3. The process that needs to be followed in order to make a Request.
 - 5.2.4. How to get copies of the Guide at no charge.
 - 5.2.5. How to get access to the manual of a private body.
 - 5.2.6. All the remedies available in law to you.

9. Other Information As May Be Prescribed (Section 51(1)(f))

The Company may possess records pertaining to other parties, including without limitation contractors, suppliers, subsidiary/ holding/ sister companies, joint venture companies and service providers. Alternatively, such other companies may possess records that can be said to belong to the Company.

9.1. These records include but are not limited to:

- 9.1.1. Personnel, customer or private records which are held by another party as opposed to the records held by the Company.
- 9.1.2. Records held by the Company pertaining to other parties, including but not limited to, financial, commercial, operational and legal records, contractual records, correspondence, records provided by the other party, and records provided by third-parties about contractors/ suppliers.

10. Steps To Consider Before Submitting A Request

The following steps must be considered before submitting a Request:

10.1. Step 1: The purpose of the information that the Requester Requests.

- 10.1.1. Please note that Section 7(1) states that:
"This Act does not apply to a record of a public body or a private body if –
(a) that record is Requested for the purpose of criminal or civil proceedings;
(b) so Requested after the commencement of such criminal or civil proceedings, as the case may be; and
(c) the production of or access to that records for the purpose referred to in Paragraph (a) is provided for in any other law".
- 10.1.2. If Section 7(1) applies, the Requester may not bring a Request in terms of this Act. The Requester must use the rules and procedures for discovery of information of the relevant legal forum and proceedings that he/ she is involved in.
- 10.1.3. Cyanre reserves the right to claim all expenses and other damages incurred as a result of a Requester submitting a Request in contravention of Section 7(1).

10.2. Step 2: Does the information Requested exist in the form of a record?

- 10.2.1. The Act only applies to documents that are in existence at the time of receiving the Request.

10.2.2. The Act does not compel anyone to create a record which is not yet in existence at the time the Request is made.

10.3. Step 3: Is the document in the possession or under the control of Cyanre?

10.3.1. The Act provides that the Requested record must be in Cyanre's possession or under its control. If the document is not in Cyanre's possession, the Requester must Request the record from the party under whose possession or control it is.

11. Access: Procedure, Availability And Prescribed Fees

11.1. How to Request a Record (Section 53):

11.1.1. Requests for access to Records must be made to the Information Officer on the prescribed form (Annexure 1). The prescribed form is also available on the website of the South African Human Rights Commission at www.sahrc.org.za.

11.1.2. Failure to make use of the prescribed form could result in your Request being refused or delayed.

11.1.3. Address your Request to the Head of the Company (CEO) or the Information Officer at the address, fax number or electronic mail address referred to in 4 above.

11.1.4. A Request for access to a Record must be accompanied by payment of an initial non-refundable Request fee of R57.50 (inclusive of VAT). This fee is not applicable to personal Requests, i.e. individual seeking access to Records pertaining to him/ herself. The Act sets out further fees which could be applicable to your Request. These fees are available under Annexure 2.

11.1.5. Should the Information Officer be of the opinion that fulfilment of the Request will require more time than the prescribe hours, the Requester will be informed to pay a deposit, of no more than a third of the above Request fee. In the event that the Request is denied, the deposit will be refunded to the Requester.

11.1.6. The Requester must provide sufficient detail on the Request Form to enable the Information Officer to clearly identify:

11.1.6.1. The record(s) Requested.

11.1.6.2. The Requester (positive proof of identification).

11.1.6.3. The format of access required:

- i. the postal address and fax number of the Requester in the Republic; and
- ii. if the Requester wishes to be informed of the decision in any manner (in addition to written), the manner and particulars thereof.

11.1.7. Access is not automatic. The Requester must therefore identify the right he/ she is seeking to exercise or protect and provide an explanation as to why the Requested Record is required for the exercise or protection of that right.

11.1.8. If a Request is made on behalf of a person, the Requester must then submit proof, to the satisfaction of the Information Officer, of his/ her authority to make the Request. Failure to do so will result in the Request being rejected.

11.2. Decision on Request (Section 56):

11.2.1. The Requester will be notified, within 30 (thirty) days, in the manner indicated by him/ her of the outcome of his/ her Request, alternatively whether an extension not exceeding 30 (thirty) days is required to deal with the Request.

11.2.2. If the Request for access is granted, a further access fee must be paid for the reproduction, the search and preparation of the Records as well as for any time that has exceeded the prescribed hours to search and prepare the Record for disclosure. Access will be withheld until the Requester has made payment of the applicable fee(s).

- 11.2.3. If the Request for access is refused, reasons for the refusal will be provided and the Requester will be advised that he/ she may lodge an application with a court against the refusal of the Request, as well as the procedure for lodging the application.
- 11.2.4. The main grounds for refusal of a Request relates to:
- 11.2.4.1. the unreasonable disclosure of personal information about a third-party, including a deceased person (subject to section 63(2) of the Act);
 - 11.2.4.2. disclosure that could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual;
 - 11.2.4.3. the disclosure that would likely prejudice or impair, inter alia -
 - i. the security of a building, structure or system, including but not limited to, a computer or communication system;
 - ii. a means of transport; or
 - iii. any other property;
 - 11.2.4.4. mandatory protection of the privacy of a third-party who is a natural person, which would involve unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural person;
 - 11.2.4.5. mandatory protection of commercial information of a third-party, if the record contains:
 - i. trade secrets of that third-party;
 - ii. financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interest of that third-party; or
 - iii. information disclosed in confidence by a third-party to Cyanre, if the disclosure could put that third-party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
 - 11.2.4.6. mandatory protection of confidential information of third-parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement;
 - 11.2.4.7. mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property;
 - 11.2.4.8. mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings;
 - 11.2.4.9. commercial activities of Cyanre, which may include:
 - i. trade secrets of Cyanre;
 - ii. financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interest of Cyanre;
 - iii. information which, if disclosed could put Cyanre at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
 - iv. a computer programme which is owned by Cyanre and which is protected by copyright; or
 - v. the research information of Cyanre or a third-party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of Cyanre, the researcher or the subject matter and would place the research at a serious disadvantage; or
 - 11.2.4.10. requests for information which is clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve unreasonable diversion of resources.
- 11.2.5. The Requester may lodge an internal appeal or an application to court against the tender or payment of the Request fee.
- 11.3. Records that cannot be found or that are lost:
- 11.3.1. If all reasonable steps have taken to find a Requested record, and there are reasonable grounds to believe the record is in Cyanre's possession but cannot be found or does not exist, Cyanre's Information Officer will notify the Requester, by way of affidavit or affirmation as prescribed by the Act, that it is not possible to give access to the Requested record.
 - 11.3.2. If, after notice is given as per 11.3.1 above, the record is found, the Requester concerned must be given access to the record, unless access is refused on any of the refusal grounds provided for in the Act.
- 11.4. Remedies Available when a Request is Refused:
- 11.4.1. Cyanre does not have an internal appeal procedure.
 - 11.4.2. Any decision made by the Information Officer is final.
 - 11.4.3. Should the Requester not be satisfied, the Requester should exercise the external remedies provided for in the Act.

11.5. Limitation of Liability:

- 11.5.1. Cyanre is relieved from liability and shall have no duty whatsoever in relation to:
 - 11.5.1.1. the integrity or accuracy of the information Requested;
 - 11.5.1.2. any delay associated with the delivery except to comply with the procedures stipulated herein; and/ or
 - 11.5.1.3. that the information Requested will conform with the requirements of the Requester except that it should correspond with the title and description provided by the Requester.
